Communication skills are an essential requirement to develop and maintain trusting relationships, and to perform effectively in an academic and complex professional environment, as well as to solve problems and communicate knowledge and understanding of relevant subject matter effectively.

Examples

Listening to the client/patient and synthesising what is actually being conveyed, communicating the persons needs, requirements and/or feedback.

Ability to extract relevant patient information to provide best evidence-based care.

Interpret verbal and written feedback from subjects to aid in the safe and effective delivery of exercise.
